Excerpt: . given td the secret Committees but the very next Year, I think, seconded a Motion for the Revival of it. Now either Way, it was a little immoral; to endeavour to bring, a Man to a second Trial, whom he had found innocent, or to delay acquitting him, (if he was innocent) for five Years after his Trial, and two after his Death. For both these Reasons any Man, who is partial to This Person s Character, will choose not to believe a Word of what he said; but will rather think it a necessary Compliment paid to you, Gentlemen, who still retain your Partiality for the Memory of that Minister. Indeed This Person s Friends have given another Solution of this Declaration: They say it was to reconcile a Vote which he was just going to give against secret Committees. It would...
