Bait-Cal. Paperback. Condition: New. 300 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in.RIPS THE LID OFF CHILLING 50-YEAR COVER-UP!John Blosser, GLOBE Newspapers Memoirs of a Deputy Coroner: The Case of Marilyn Monroe delivers a powerful new account of the official Coroners investigation into Marilyn Monroes death. Written by former Deputy Coroner Lionel Grandison, who investigated Marilyns case in 1962 and signed her death certificate, this explosive new book chronicles his shocking experience with her case. This incredible true-story provides an unprecedented inside look at the massive cover-up Grandison witnessed and how the official Coroners investigation was sabotaged to hide the truth about Marilyn Monroes death. Never has Marilyns story been told through the eyes of somebody who actually participated in the investigation. Grandison is one of the last remaining public officials, who was directly involved with the case. The book reveals his personal and professional relationships with key figures involved in the case including his former boss, Los Angeles County Chief Medical Examiner Theodore Curphey, and Dr. Thomas Noguchi who performed Marilyns autopsy. Grandisons story is compelling and his insight into Marilyn Monroes death is astonishing. His book offers stunning new information about her autopsy, original toxicology reports and Grandisons discovery of Marilyns secret diary, which the Los Angeles County Coroners Office had in its possession. Lionel Grandison was the last public official to see Marilyns secret diary, which was discovered with her personal property. The diary depicted a high stakes secret life being lived by Marilyn and her knowledge of sensitive government issues, which may have gotten her killed. Grandisons book reveals the explosive contents of Marilyns diary, which includes Marilyns chilling involvement with the Kennedys, FBI, CIA and Mafia members. Memoirs of a Deputy Coroner: The Case of Marilyn Monroe describes a shocking chain-of-events leading up to Marilyns death...
