Tales from Under the Moon Roof, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After retiring from a career in public health and medicine, I saw an employment ad for Uber drivers in Atlanta. In April 2014, #uberdriver1 hit the streets. The job started as an extra source of income. However, I quickly learned that Uber passengers want more than just a ride in a clean car. Most want to have a conversation or to have some fun. I never know who s going to sit down in my car. It might be a senior executive at a Fortune 500 company, a bartender going to work, a college student going to the grocery store, a foreign tourist, or someone who s just gotten bad news. Not only do I make sure they get to their destination safely, I try to offer witty conversation and bottles of water. What most long-term Uber drivers find is that their passengers provide a unique window of opportunity to learn about new things or experiences. I am amazed at the stories I hear and the links I find to my own life. Coming from a family of storytellers (or tellers of tall tales), I always ask questions. Sitting in a car for a few minutes with someone you will likely not meet again is like speed-dating. I want to find that one thing that makes someone more than just another passenger-what is their story? After a couple of months, I started writing about my experiences and created a blog. My husband and I love to travel and I approach the countries we visit in the same way as I do Uber passengers. In the last few years, we ve been to Italy,...
