War. I have grown up in a war mongering world and living with the effects of a Cold War posture it has had a profound effect on the way I view the world. Post WWII and the years that followed the war to end all wars has pasted in the back of everyones mind the potential of a nuclear attack by our enemies whether we acknowledge it or not. Back in 1980 fresh out of high school the Chinese were threatening with the invasion of the island nation of Taiwan our ally and Ronald Reagan as president made it clear that any attack on them would be viewed as an attack on the U. S. and met with the full force of our military. It was a tense time and I even...
