LC Number: ML28. W2 N226 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45089934 Subject: Concerts -- Washington (D. C.) -- Auditing. Excerpt: . . . Appendix I Schedule and Notes for the 1999 Capitol Concert Series Note 3: Excess of Receipts Over Uses (Uses Over Receipts) As discussed separately below, the accounting of each organizations receipt and use of concert-related funding, as reflected in the schedule, results in either an excess of receipts over uses or of uses over receipts. While the schedule contains a memorandum total column, which is intended to summarize the overall receipt and use of funding for the 1999 concert series, each organizations accounting for its receipt and use of concert-specific funding is separate, and any excess of receipts over uses by any organization is not available to offset or otherwise fund any excess of uses over receipts experienced by another organization. a. NPS - The 7, 010 in excess uses over receipts reflected the fact that the 100, 000 retained by NPS (from the 2, 453, 000 in concert-related grant funds under its control) was not sufficient to fully fund NPS costs. Funding for the additional 7, 010 in costs was provided through the use of NPS 1999 appropriations for operation of the National Park System, which was available to support the general operations of its National Capital Region. b. NSO - The 1, 336 in excess receipts over uses reflected the fact that NSO receipts exceeded the concert-related costs separately tracked in its accounting records. This increase in NSOs net assets from its work on the three 1999 concerts was available to fund other...
