Celebrity PR, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Robert Louis Stevenson once said that everyone lives by selling something. This was a sage statement from a productive mind. The word SOLD has a vibrant ring for most of us. It is a pivotal word in the world of Real Estate, and one that generally pervades our entire economic existence. There are several meanings attached to the word SOLD - including, for example: a completed transaction, an idea that has been accepted, or acceptance of a final bid at an auction; it is, however, used primarily in an economic context. Selling grew out of bartering or exchanging when one party had more bargaining power than the other. Bartering or exchanging grew out of the specialization of duties or chores that allowed us to enjoy equitable fruits of each other s labor. This system of specialization of tasks enabled us to survive and thrive, and we have never lost our desire to barter, buy or sell anything under the sun - especially property. In this vein, our Celebrity Experts(r) in Real Estate have honed this skill into a fine art with...
