By Tye Downing

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Urban Girl Chronicles: Love Loyalty is one of a short series of fiction inspired urban novels that tells a story of a young African American girl named Mariah, who was born in the streets of Oakland, California. Mariah s life has been a constant struggle since she can remember. At a young age, she began to write her thoughts in her diary to release some of her anger towards life. At the age of twenty-one she had a crack addicted mother, she had been raped, she was homeless, a stripper, and had attempted suicide. After all her struggles as a child, she lived her life on the edge as an adult. She always put others before herself in hopes of loyalty in return. But will she realize loyalty and love can t be brought, taught or will it be too late?.
