THE DEAD SEA BAR AND GRILL (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Dead Sea Bar and Grill is about tough guys trying to hide tender hearts and painful pasts who get involved in an elaborate scheme to con Arab and other oil barons during the height of the 1977 oil embargo.  It is 1977. Oil is in short supply, disco is in full bloom, and the New York Yankees are on the verge of winning the World Series after a long drought. Never mind all that. Butch Badovich is a pint-size cab driver turned pimp who has a stable of women nobody wants. They are too fat, too old or too ugly. So Butch gives credit to shut-ins and other losers who are on fixed incomes so they can get serviced by his third-rate escort business. Butch has his office in a booth at the Dead Sea Bar and Grill in New York City where his girlfriend Rosie keeps the books. The bar is a dive in a seedy neighborhood where con men and an assortment of thieves, robbers, street toughs and oddball characters congregate. Initially, the pimp business thrives. But soon Butch s customers miss payments or thumb their noses at paying. The escort service is soon being crushed by debt. Rosie suggests that Butch hire an aging former heavyweight boxer Frankie Finch as a collector and enforcer. Frankie is living in the dank basement of New Jerusalem Church of God s Wondrous Signs and Marvelous Miracles. He is working for a religious con man named Erasmus Jenkins who sold life insurance before got into the business of saving souls for Jesus. Frankie is the church s janitor. His life is bleak. Just when he is about to...
