

Giving: How Each of Us Can Change the World

By Bill Clinton

Cornerstone, United Kingdom, 2007. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 143 x 125 mm. Language: English . Brand New. Here, from Bill Clinton, is a call to action. Giving is an inspiring look at how each of us can change the world. First, it reveals the extraordinary and innovative efforts now being made by companies and organizations - and by individuals - to solve problems and save lives both down the street and around the world . Then it urges us to seek out what each of us, regardless of income, available time, age, and skills , can do to help, to give people a chance to live out their dreams. Bill Clinton shares his own experiences and those of other givers, representing a global flood tide of nongovernmental, nonprofit activity. These remarkable stories demonstrate that gifts of time, skills, things, and ideas are as important and effective as contributions of money. From Bill and Melinda Gates to a six-year-old California girl named McKenzie Steiner, who organized and supervised drives to clean up the beach in her community, Clinton introduces us to both well-known and unknown heroes of giving. Among them: Dr. Paul Farmer, who grew up living in the family...
