

Partners in Time (Paperback)

By Jane Quantrill

MoshPit Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A young woman, obsessed with her newly found American Civil War ancestor, discovers her scientist neighbour invented a time transporting bracelet. She acquires it, using it to transport herself back to 1861 when the War began. There, she finally finds her ancestor, Rebel guerrilla leader William Quantrill. They fall in love, and share many adventures. Her world falls apart when his former girlfriend returns. She takes matters into her own hands, using the time bracelet; transporting her nemesis far back in time, where the girl is subjected to one of the most terrifying fates imaginable. When Quantrill is told of what she has done, she believes he no longer feels the same for her, despite his protestations that it isn't so. In an attempt to right things, by changing some horrific events she knows are to come, she uses the bracelet to take her to Union colonel, Tom Denning - Quantrill's nemesis. Her unexpected feelings for this man throw her life into total confusion. She asks for Denning's help, in preventing a terrible act which will result in...
