

Confessions of a Funeral Director: How the Business of Death Saved My Life (Hardback)

By Caleb Wilde

HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The blogger behind Confessions of a Funeral Director-what Time magazine called a must read -reflects on mortality and the powerful lessons death holds for every one of us in this compassionate and thoughtful spiritual memoir that combines the humor and insight of Smoke Gets in Your Eyes with the poignancy and brevity of When Breath Becomes Air. We are a people who deeply fear death. While humans are biologically wired to evade death for as long as possible, we have become too adept at hiding from it, vilifying it, and-when it can be avoided no longer-letting the professionals take over. Sixth-generation funeral director Caleb Wilde understands this reticence and fear. He had planned to get as far away from the family business as possible. He wanted to make a difference in the world, and how could he do that if all the people he worked with were . . . dead? Slowly, he discovered that caring for the deceased and their loved ones was making a difference-in other people s lives to be sure, but it also seemed to be saving his own. A spirituality...
