When, Lord, When? is a story about four very different women that formed an unlikely friendship. They are smart, professional, and very successful in their respective careers. However, life and the choices they've made have left them with buried, unhealed wounds that nobody can see but they live with every day. Sweet, seductive Sylvia tormented by her body's inability to give her the one thing she truly wants. Rough and unfiltered Renee taking on a man's world and making it her own constantly proving to herself she's good enough just as she is. Distant and calculating Tracy with an undisclosed past she would rather run from than share. And thoughtful and sensitive Paula whose tormented past has made her a bestselling author. For years, they have found comfort and acceptance in their friendship with one another. Then one day, all that changes, and when it does, their integrity, their faith, and their friendship are seriously tested. Will the love they have for each other keep them together? Or will other truths revealed tear them apart?.
