Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Popular Government, Vol. 22: November, 1955 The issue can best be raised with a particular kind of taxpayer or class of taxpayers in mind. I am thinking of those who own property and do business in more than one place, more than one county, more than one town. If the discount pattern is uniform throughout the state these taxpayers will adjust their business and accounting practices to meet that pattern; if the discount pattern varies from location to location (not to say from one session of the legislature to another) the taxpayer must make a series of business and accounting adjustments which, it can be argued with force, place him at a distinct disadvantage. Perhaps the new taxpayer or the one who first meets this situation will feel the discrimination most sharply. So long as the state itself imposes no property tax for administration by local units of government the question of the constitutionality of local variants from the state-wide law runs little risk of judicial testing, but whether they do violence to the spirit if not the letter of the Constitution's uniformity requirement is still a serious question for those concerned with law-making in this state.
