You grew through hard times inflicted by nefarious psyche craving for total control over more and more of your human lives. Even harder times are coming if you do not claim your lives back from the evil few who finally almost completed to build an inescapable cage for the Humanity of this Planet. The Humanity is on the brick of extinction due to enslavement. Enslaved people cannot be human. Incarcerated mind and confined thoughts make human degrade into a piece of ordinary matter, machines intended to serve those who only want to rule. Those self-chosen few do not and never will embody humanity, for they are inhuman in their thirst for absolute power over the rest of you. Even if they succeed to make the very final step and reign over you, they will not be able to master evolution on their own. Their vicious minds are limited by the idea of the total control and are not able to evolve...
