

Doggeral (Urban Ballads) (Paperback)

By Jackie Adams

Page Publishing, Inc., United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Urban ballads are art songs and poems. It first started at the outset of America s Shock and Awe campaign. The narrator is Doggerel speaking in soliloquy while confined in isolation of a maximum-security prison. Doggerel hints at oppression, bewilderment, and hate in each composition. Because Doggerel is confined for a crime that he did not commit. Doggerel starts out with -Punching the Clock- which indicates he is going to work it out. Inadequate police training and anti-government sentiment is implied in -The Flying Guillotine.- -Baton Rouge- takes us to the Mardi Gras, a yearly event which Doggerel attends. -We Are in Motion- is an inspiration composition about solitary confinement. In summation, Doggerel thinks of romance, religion, and a burning soul with urbanization being the back drop. -Doggerel: urban ballads- is a good read and a references guide for neophytes and old poet lyricists that wants to understand the significands of literature today in every genre of music.
