Sixteen Seconds An Epilogue To Humanity Novel Volume 1

By Aubrea Summer

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 360 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Sixteen Seconds is the distance between a thought and a revolution, between who you were and who you might be. The world didnt end with the extinction of mankind, rather the annihilation of human thought with the implement of a devastating neurological device, relegating the world to darkness, chaos, and war, where its too late to realize something is dangerously wrong with the children; too late to stop the consequences before the future of humanity is forever tainted. When the countrys leaders banned and confiscated the citizens firearms and executed martial law, those in command didnt think twice. When taxes and gasoline skyrocketed and families were left with only the streets, officials lined their bloody pockets and didnt bat an eye. When poverty overran the country alongside disease and starvation, tyrannical rule found a death grip, strangling the heart and soul of a nation and stripping away the human rights of an entire population. Kenneth Ridley has been searching for another like him, someone who shares and understands his special talent; someone who can teach him to control the force...
