I Want to Make a Difference (Paperback)

By Kelsey Anastasia Norris, Carol Norris

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Kelsey Norris has spent her entire life overcoming obstacles. She was found in a Russian orphanage when she was 11 months old weighing less than 14 pounds. Alone, sick, starving and emaciated, her head had been shaved due to lice. She was dressed in rags and had never worn a diaper. The doctors did not know if she would ever walk or talk. When the doctors at the orphanage told her prospective mother that Kelsey was a special needs child and they could not guarantee that she would ever walk or talk. She told them that she didn't care about that because she loved Kelsey and wanted to be her mother. Together, Kelsey and her new mother worked to overcome challenges. Along the way, they have experienced barriers and learned that not everyone is kind and not everyone believes in value of all God's children, adoption and caring for the less fortunate. Through faith and determination, they have proven that family isn't necessarily who you are biologically related to. Instead, family can be anyone who loves and cares about...
