The midnight sky ripped apart with flames as Jake Reynold s world erupted with sound and light. Bright claws of red and gold reached every direction, destroying everything in their path. Caroline Morgan awoke with a start, realizing this wasn t a dream but a true nightmare. Jake s home was engulfed in flames! Grabbing the first covering she could find, an old trench coat, she hurried into the night. She had been in Jake s living room only hours before, placing the beautiful antique furniture, giving life to his eyes she had never seen there. Now it was all being destroyed bit by bit as the fire raced through the structure. Where was Jake? Was he alive? The heat was unbearable but Caroline pushed forward until she could go no further. Still she waited, paced, cried, and prayed for his safety. Time stood still. Jake stepped out of the fire chief s car into the cold night. He wrapped the blanket he had been given tighter around his shoulders. It was all gone. The home he had finally...
