Excerpt from Thoughts and Notes: At Home and Abroad The author would respectfully submit a few facts and observation to the readers of this volume, to explain its character and objects, and the reason of its appearance. In the year 1844 he commenced the publication of a weekly newspaper in Worcester, Mass., called The Christian Citizen. It was especially devoted to the Anti-Slavery cause, Peace, Temperance, and Self-Cultivation. In 1846 he first visited England, where he remained three years; still continuing his paper in Massachusetts. During this sojourn in the Mother Country, he originated several enterprises for the promotion of peace and friendly intercourse and fraternal sympathy between different countries.
