You who against the cup admonish us, Thus making war on a divine decree, Your very visage, dour and dolorous, The pain of your own abstinence declares; You do without--but how reluctantly! Wine to the pure in heart is heart s delight, Because its ruby no impression takes--Saving the very face of sober truth. As I talk on, as yonder candle bright, I cannot keep from smiling mid my tears To think of all this music my tongue makes, This wasted eloquence she never hears. Good Sufi, cease--you weary me in sooth! You bid me take my eyes from off her face! Deafen no more already deafened ears--Take your tongue rather to some other place. These mumbling incantations of your spleen...
