Allbutt (reading from Little Dorrit), Mrs. Arthur Hoare (recital from David Copperfield), and Mr. W. J. Douglas (recitals from A Tale of Two Cities and Pickwick). Coffee and light refreshments were served during the evening. DUBLIN.--This Branch closed a most successful first session with a public meeting in the Sackville Cafe on May 7th, when the President (Sir Charles A. Cameron, C.B.), who occupied the chair, delivered one of his characteristically delightful speeches to a large gathering of members and friends, in the course of which he complimented his audience on the success which the branch has achieved during its initial session and the excellent social and charitable work it had accomplished. The hon. secretary (Mr. Geo. A. Prescott), in reviewing the progress of the branch...
