Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Official Guide, 1906 From Niagara to the Sea: The Finest Inland Water Trip in the World Every year, as an offering to the wrathful deity, a beautiful girl was bound fast in a bark canoe, and then set adrift in the rapids, while singers chanted the death-song till her frail bark was swept over the cataract and swallowed up in the foam and spray beneath. Time has also left its impress; slowly but surely the massive rock is being worn away, and in 1850 a large portion of the Table Rock was precipitated into the gulf with a crash that was heard for miles from the scene. Perhaps the best description of Niagara Falls ever written is from the pen of Charles Dickens: - For the first time I heard the mighty rush of water, and felt the ground tremble underneath my feet. The bank is very steep, and was slippery with rain and half-melted ice; but I was soon at the bottom, defeated by the noise, half blinded by the spray, and wet to...
