Although not for the squeamish, the impressive debut play by Alan Bowne is utterly convincing. -Variety A harrowing drama - the world drawn by Bowne with such nose-rubbing honesty is a reality we all know exists. -New York Post Simply dazzling, a sharply focused nether world, full of danger and surpassing sadness. These boys live on the bitter edge with survival a matter of day and night doubt. They re eerie men-children thrust from pubescence into a premature sort of middle age.
