Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Keziah Coffin Trumpet in a fog; a fog blown in during the night by the wind from the wide Atlantic. So wet and heavy that one might taste the salt in it. So thick that houses along the main road were but dim shapes behind its gray drapery, and only the gates and fences of the front yards were plainly in evidence to the passers by. The beach plum and bayberry bushes on the dunes were spangled with heady drops. The pole on Cannon Hill, where the beacon was hoisted when the packet from Boston dropped anchor in the bay, was shiny and slippery. The new weathervane, a gilded whale, presented to the Regular church by Captain Zebedee Mayo, retired whaler, swam in a sea of cloud. The lichened eaves of the little Come-Outer chapel dripped at sedate intervals. The brick walk leading to the door of Captain Elkanah Daniels s fine residence held undignified puddles in its hollows. And, through the damp stillness, the muttered growl of the surf, three miles away at the...
