The Eagles Shadow is an anthology including two historical thrillers written by the author that have a common substrate, the myths that served as a spiritual basis for Nazism that although having been defeated in the second world war still exert an influence in certain circles in the present. The works that compose it are: Himmlers Legacy: Anchored in remote medieval origins and using a genetic distinctive feature as a red thread, the story starts in a castle in Nazi Germany, a SS training and command center. The plot leads first to Antarctica where scientists carry on enigmatic military activities. Among them there are fanatical Nazis and skeptical scientists and soldiers, a fact that is premonitory of the conflict that will soon develop. Some of these characters finally arrive in Argentina. Their knowledge of the activities in Antarctica expose them to persecution and great risks. The nowadays characters attempt to unravel the strange legacy they have received, mixing strange Nazi mythology and very specific interests. They are thus faced with very evil men, The action shifts from Buenos Aires to Rio de...
