iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Comprised of short, intuitive snapshots of the world in and around author Jason Green's life, Salty Water Flowing on Flowers is a short collection of inspirational poems. Lyrical in word and almost melodic in voice, Green's poetry tackles his struggle with testicular cancer, the deaths of his friends, and breakups. Thoughts on love, life, hope, religion, and September 11, 2001, also dance their way across the pages. These fragmentary thoughts and conversational pieces speak to the hearts of us all, whether we struggle with the loss of a dear friend or the overwhelming feelings of helplessness we endure through tragedy. Even though many of the poems are semi-autobiographical, these glimpses of Green's life, experiences, and thoughts reflect the soul of human nature. Take a moment to muse upon Green's verses and immerse yourself in the evocative world of days past and present. Salty Water Flowing on Flowers will enrich your life through the power of the written word.
