College Admission Policies in Plain English!How to Cut Through the Jargon and Crack the Code!Applying for college admission can be a time-consuming, complex process. When you consider that the average high school student applies to approximately six different colleges, its clear that this is a pretty big job!! At the same time, colleges dont seem inclined to make the process easy. If you look at a typical admissions website, youll see all kinds of scary acronyms, special education-ese words, and unique requirements that would mystify most people. How do you figure out what they are talking about!Reading College Admission Policies Demystified is the perfect place to start. Using examples from a variety of different colleges and universities, Lee breaks down all the scary words and acronyms, translates the education-ese, and helps you figure out exactly what universities are asking for. Then she explains the easiest ways to give schools what they want. Heres Why You Need This Book: Unless youre a college administrator, trying to understand admission policies can leave you dazed and discouraged. With College Admission Policies Demystified,...
