By Katie Fallon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Werewolf, he muttered. You re a werewolf. Ding, ding, ding, she drawled sarcastically. Give that boy a prize. Kat moved to his bed and pulled the wooden box from his weapons bag to flip open the top and shows him the missing shells. The box had been full when he put it under there and now he knows why it was sticking out from underneath the bed this morning when he returned. Silver is lethal to you guys. Sebastian snatched the box back. What the hell could you possibly need these for? For the Infected wolf in the basement, she said. Infected? he asked. A wolf not like me, she said. Rabid, monster, they re the kinds of wolves you hunt and we hate. I see no difference, he snarled. And that right there is why you don t belong here, she said. I m out of here, hunters are so stubborn you re not going to listen to me anyway. So I won t even bother wasting my breath. Sebastian moved to block the doorknob. Who said you...
