

The Oracle of del-Fi (Paperback)

By Bob Keane

Del-Fi International Books, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Real Story Behind Hollywood s Legendary Rock n Roll Mogul Bob Keane, president of Del-Fi Records, tells a story within a story, dealing not only with the West coast record scene of the 50s and 60s, but also with his life journey as a man in search of his dream. to become a great clarinetist and band-leader like his idol, Benny Goodman. His quest leads him through a maze of incredible circumstances that shape him into a legendary figure in the record industry. As a musician and record business hustler, Keane finds himself an eyewitness to both the center state action and the sometimes deadly games acted out behind the scenes. Keane gives readers the real story behind Ritchie Valens and La Bamba as well as previously unknown insights into the death of another of his major artists, Bobby Fuller, with the cover-up and web of lies that made it one of Hollywood s most intriguing unsolved murder mysteries. Bob also tells the true stories behind the discovery and rise to fame of Sam Cooke, Barry White, Frank Zappa and...
