

Gentleman: A Family Memior (Paperback)

By Norman Ernest Gates

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Norman Timmins Gates lived a long, happy and loving life. GENTLEMAN presents family stories and some of Norman s poems about those days. The subject of the book, the love that allowed Norman to live ninety-five active, giving years, shines in all of the stories and poems from the first to the last. One of Norman s stories was about pushing a peanut with his nose. He said a lot of people lived as if they were pushing a peanut with their nose. They push every day, year after year, never taking their eyes or their efforts off of the peanut. Then one day when they push the peanut, it drops off a cliff, and they go after it. He said he wanted to raise his head up and look around before he got to the cliff. He didn t want to focus always on pushing the peanut with his nose. Norman told stories in conversation. If there was a tree in the story, he imagined what the tree was feeling. If there was a cloud, a fish and a...
