Excerpt: . . . a For SSI beneficiaries, SGA is not considered and the CDR evaluation process is started at Step 2. Instructions for SGA considerations differ for beneficiaries covered by certain work incentive programs. b If a group II exception applies, discontinue benefits immediately without a medical determination. c Consider age and time on the disability programs. If SSA finds that the individual no longer has a disability and discontinues benefits following a CDR, the individual has the right to appeal the CDR decision, first to another reviewer for a reconsideration, second to an administrative law judge, then to the Appeals Council, and finally to federal courts. At the hearing before the administrative law judge (ALJ), the ALJ reviews the file, including any additional evidence submitted after the DDS determination and may hear testimony from the individual as well as medical and vocational experts. SSAs Office of Quality Performance conducts quality reviews of disability determination outcomes. To conduct these quality reviews, SSA selects a random sample of cases each month from all final CDR decisions, stratifying the...
