This she consented to do, and, on a night in August, in the grounds of the Rectory, under an almost full moon, she and Robertson played two scenes from Romeo and Juliet, acting on a platform erected among trees. The attendance was large and the effect of the performance was considered fine. An enthusiastic spectator wrote a glowing account of the incident and sent it to Edmund Yates s London newspaper, The World, in which it was published, and it was widely read. Among the readers of that article was Lady Archibald Campbell, a devotee of the Drama and specially interested in amateur theatrical performances. After some correspondence with Robertson, Lady Campbell arranged an out-door representation of As You Like It, in which, I believe, professional as well as amateur performers participated, and in which...
