The same old report comes from the Fostoria, and everybody is working as good as could be expected for this time of the year. The average run is, from nine to eleven turns a week. Bro. Thomas Ellsworth, formerly of Steubenville, Ohio, but of late working at the Fostoria Glass Works, met his death at Benwood by being run down by a street car. Bro. Ellsworth s body in some way caught on one of the axles of the car and he was wrapped about the axle, crushing him horribly. It required nearly two hours to get his body from beneath the car. Funeral services w re held March 17 at 2 o clock in the residence of Joseph Freese, at 3508 Wood street. Interment was in Mount Zion Cemetery. From what could be learned, a mystery surrounds the accident. He...
