

Potions and Paper Cranes

By Lan Fang

Dalang Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 252 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. A stark, honest portrayal of cursed love during the Japanese occupation of Java and the struggle for Indonesian independence. Sulis is a young woman selling potions in Surabayas harbor district. She meets Sujono, a coolie with dreams of becoming a freedom fighter, and whose passion for Matsumi, a geisha called to Java by a Japanese general, is destined to ruin all of them. In Potions and Paper Cranes, each tells the story of their lives during the end of World War II and Indonesias transition from a Dutch colony to an independent republic. Award-winning author Lan Fang began publishing short stories in teen magazines. She soon graduated to novels and became renowned for her intense first person narratives about women in ethnic and culture conflicts. Critics have praised Lan Fang for her ability to cross the borders of gender, race, and religion. She passed away at the age of forty-one, leaving behind nine novels and many short stories much loved by readers around the world. Japan and Java clash and intertwine in Lan Fangs Potions and Paper Cranes, set in the old commercial center of Surabaya...

READ ONLINE
[3.67 MB]

Reviews

Merely no words to spell out. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am happy to explain how this is actually the very best publication we have go through within my personal daily life and can be he best ebook for at any time.

-- Althea Christiansen

Very useful to any or all group of men and women. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You are going to like just how the blogger publish this book.

-- Kristian Nader