Meadow Bay Fair (Paperback)

By Philip Berry

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . All The Pieces - Volume 7: Objects that glow and hum with the power of nature, perhaps Earthly, probably not. They have been lying around for centuries, waiting to be found. Tamsin is now twelve years old. Inspired by the romance and excitement of a travelling funfair she asks her parents for permission to take a job there during the summer holidays. Away from home, with responsibility for taking customers money and keeping children safe on a small merry-go-round, she watches as a storm rolls in from the sea and destroys all the rides. Through the rain emerges a small army of sinister figures carrying long hammers. Stone Splitters. With the help of friends old and new Tamsin must rescue a group of kidnapped fair-hands and work out what it is the Splitters seek. In doing so she discovers more about the history of the Pieces, and unwittingly solves an equally baffling mystery - that of the flying fleet .
