

The Horrors of Love

By Jeanne E. McComsey

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  Gravesend Castle; six hundred and sixty-six times more beautiful than Westminster Abby, stood openly in Romania's countryside with an imperceptible cemetery-like quietness; soft breezes ruffled the trees around the lake; Wolves were sporting in the water and a cougar was nuzzling his yellow fur below a weeping-willow tree, Victor, the Vampire, was talking to the animals; Tis nice in the early evening; is it not, boys? The sky was darkening so fast it bruised itself. Love promises us a world made beautiful, then struggles to transform each ugly thing, and in its struggle it grows neurotic, always dreaming of better things, like betrayal or a handsome fanged raucous deceiver of death. Horsemen cantered around the castle's five-block perimeter, chasing away tourists, bug-infested beggars and homeless tramp-children wearing burlap sacks. Lift up your throat to my lips and welcome the treasured kiss of an infamous amorous lover, there's no pain; the Horrors of Love permit me to drain your blood! Victor went into his basement, preparing to jump into his coffin and keep the Blonde Assassin...
