He was seen arm-in-arm with Lovell, strolling up and down the High Street, and the fags breathlessly repeated what Desmond had predicted a year ago: the Demon was the coming man. And always, when John and Desmond passed him, John thought he could read a derisive triumph upon the Demons handsome face, an expression which said plainly: You young fool, dont you know that Im playing cat and mouse with you The three still met twice daily to prepare work. But the moment that was done, Scaife disappeared, leaving John and Desmond together. Hes playing bridge in Lovells room, said Desmond. More facts were gleaned from the Caterpillar, who had joined the bridge-players, but played seldom. One draws the line, said he, at playing for stakes one cant afford to lose. Lovell and the Demon have made it too hot. And Warde will make it hotter, said John. Not he, replied the Caterpillar. The Demon is a wonder. Thanks to his brains, detection is impossible. He suggested that Lovells room should be...
