I went two days ago, with Lady Ailesbury, and Mr. Conway, and Miss Anne, to hear the rehearsal of Mrs. Clive s new farces, which is very droll, with very pretty music. Yours ever, H. W. He became Cofferer of the House-Clive s benefit night (March 28, hold. 1754) at Drury Lane. 3 According to Cunningham, The Passage omitted. London Apprentice, acted on Mrs. 889. To Horace Mann. Arlington Street, March 28, 1754. I Promised to write to you again soon, and therefore I do: that is, I stick to the letter, not to the essence; for I not only have very little to write, but your brother has, I believe, already told you all that has happened. Mr. Fox received almost at once a testimonial that he was the most proper for minister, and a proof that he...
