Authorsolutions (Partridge Singapore), United States, 2014. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is a recent addition to the Autobiography/Personal memories category. The Author, a Medical Doctor by profession, through his simple and natural style supported with beautiful illustrations, narrates his experiences chronology, in the pursuit of his career aspirations and is well enough to satisfy the inspiring populations of all ages. The very long wait at the Heathrow airport in the UK for an unknown person, without money and proper food that too in a diabetic state inside and bone-chilling weather outside with no seasonal dressing, he continues the wait only to find himself by rolling like a hound on an ice-cold metal bench of the airport. Nearly forty hours of survival on an empty stomach, very immediately prior to an important examination, for which he started his journey all the way from India, continued only to face the marching of challenging events of different sorts. At the end, tired and exhausted to the edge, he pops out of the fire walking experiences with an absolute victory that is really epoch making.
