By Richard Harding Davis

Flying Chipmunk Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Charles Dana Gibson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The King's Jackal - Richard Harding Davis's daring adventure set in a dangerous, foreign land. The exiled King of Messina, and Baron Kalonay, plot to re-establish the king's financial fortunes by purchasing arms and invading his former country! The only one standing in the way of the diabolical plans of the bankrupt exiled King is a courageous American reporter. But is the King really planning an invasion? If he isn't, what is his plan? * * * * Once Upon a Time - A collection of eight of Davis's short stories, drawn from his experiences abroad as a correspondent. A Question of Latitude deals with European cruelty and misrule in the Congo. The Spy visits the South America of dictators, revolutions, and corrupt financial schemers from the U.S. Also included are The Messengers, A Wasted Day, A Charmed Life, The Amateur, The Make-Believe Man, and Peace Maneuvers. * * * * Cinderella and Other Stories - Five stories, starting with the one naming the book: Cinderella, an outing with Van Bibber...
