

How to Win a Chestnut Fight (Hardback)

By Albert Dell'apa

iUniverse, United States, 2009. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . By all objective measures, forty-year-old Andy Desanctis is a success. He has a lucrative legal career, a beautiful wife, a compassionate teenage daughter, and a high-rise condo on Toronto s waterfront. Yet ever since Andy received his mother s most recent phone call, he s been uneasy. Despite many fond memories of growing up in Rosewater, he hasn t set foot in his rural hometown for fifteen years. Too many things happened there that he can t confront; too many cries for help were left unanswered. His mother s pleas were desperate, however, and Andy can t avoid returning to Rosewater any longer. His father is ill and his mother is scared; they both need him. There s just no choice but to walk into the fire. Reuniting in Rosewater with the entire Desanctis clan, Andy must acknowledge the potential loss of his tough-as-steel father. On a deeper level, he must grapple with the things he saw, the choices he made, and what he should have done-decisions that continue to torment him as an adult. The homecoming poses a quandary: Andy can...
