The results of these meetings will go down in history as the foundation for the reconstruction period of the shoe business for the United States. Refer to your Trade Journals--and read carefully the accounts of these four important gatherings. Until June 1, 1919, Local Shoe Manufacturers will only ship footwear made as specified in Conservation program as of October 9, 1918. Present Day Conditions as they appear to the State Oficials: Gray shoes are selling well. Medium shade of Gray will be good for the Spring season. uCombination boots are good at present, but they will be questionable merchandise for next Spring. We recommend conservative buying of conservative footwear. To have your house in order for the readjustment which is bound to come, your stock must be at a minimum. which it is impossible to get except from a military training. A man is certainly better equipped for business after a technical Army course. A man comes out more efficient in business than when he enters. I have seen case after case of...
