

Jevic and the Stone (Paperback)

By Lisa Popp

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Sidhe were supernaturally-gifted people who long ago traveled to Ireland upon four sailing ships from four small islands to the north. On each vessel, they carried one sacred treasure—a stone, a sword, a spear, and a cauldron. These seemingly ordinary objects possessed mystical powers beyond anything mankind had ever known, prompting the people there to refer to these strangers as the Tribe of the Gods. These superior beings were so determined to live among men that they burned their ships upon arrival. But the people of the island were not so sure about the strangers. While many feared the Sidhe's power, others craved it, and great battles were fought as they tried to find their place among men. Eventually, they settled beneath the green hills and concealed their new home from the world above with a veil of magic. Occasionally, one or two would be seen on the surface stealing a glimpse of the precious night sky. So, to avoid further conflict in the realm of man, they used their magic to make themselves smaller. Some changed...
