By Jeff Evans

Touchwood Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 234 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Join Jeff Evans as he guides you on outdoor adventures to the worlds highest mountains and unpacks what it means to conquer the fear and peril that lifes challenges bring. In this updated and expanded edition of MountainVision, Jeffs exciting and heartwarming memoir teaches new lessons in leadership and life from beyond the summit. Over twenty-five-plus years of guiding adventurer groups to the tallest peaks on six continents, Jeff has shown himself to be courageous, cool-headed, and committed to safety. As a co-founder of Soldiers to Summits, Jeff has trained and guided war veterans on some of their most daring exploits. As the friend and guide of blind adventurer Erik Weihenmayer, Jeff has done what no one else would, come alongside a man who needed someone special, as committed to Eriks safety as to his own, and to finding creative ways to give Erik the help he needed but also the empowerment he wanted. Now, as a motivational speaker around the world, Jeff inspires business, military and civic leaders with his lessons from beyond the summit, showing that learning the basics of leadership and management on a mountain...
