Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jan. 23-There should be no misunderstanding that the two contradictory courses of developments within the United States today are somehow merely a coincidence. On the one hand, the two-year long campaign to stop Donald Trump, the so-called Russiagate, orchestrated by British intelligence agent Christopher Steele and his assets within the Obama intelligence community, is now verging on collapse. The outright criminal actions by this conspiratorial cabal now stand exposed-and many of them should end up in prison. Peter Strzok, who led much of the Russia investigation at the FBI, and as a member of Robert Mueller s Russiagate task force, has been caught bragging in a text message to his lover (and fellow FBI agent) about a secret society to bring down Trump just after his election. Strzok was also exposed as expressing his belief that there was no substance to the charges of Russia collusion, even as he was joining the Mueller witchhunt. On the other hand, the neoconservative hawks on both sides of the aisle, and in London, and even within Trump s immediate circle, have unleashed a shrill cry to prepare for war against the fake threats from Russia and China. The Chinese have taken note of the danger, while the Russians have more than taken note. There are multiple warnings from every part of the Russian establishment that the West appears to have gone mad-that despite Trump s clear and repeated calls for peaceful and friendly relations with Russia, the drive for war is rapidly approaching the point of no return. At the Davos World Economic Summit, which opened today, Andrei Kostin, chief executive of VTB, one of Russia s leading banks, told the Financial Times that his...
