

Perilous Memories: The Asia-Pacific War(s)

By T. Fujitani, Geoffrey M. White, Lisa Yoneyama

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Perilous Memories: The Asia-Pacific War(s), T. Fujitani, Geoffrey M. White, Lisa Yoneyama, Perilous Memories makes a groundbreaking and critical intervention into debates about war memory in the Asia Pacific region. Arguing that much is lost or erased when the Asia Pacific War(s) are reduced to the 1941-1945 war between Japan and the United States, this collection challenges mainstream memories of the Second World War in favour of what were actually multiple, widespread conflicts. The contributors recuperate marginalised or silenced memories of wars throughout the region-not only in Japan and the United States but also in China, Southeast Asia, the Pacific islands, Okinawa, Taiwan, and Korea. Firmly based on the insight that memory is always mediated and that the past is not a stable object, the volume demonstrates that we can intervene positively yet critically in the recovery and reinterpretation of events and experiences that have been pushed to the peripheries of the past. The contributors - an international list of anthropologists, cultural critics, historians, literary scholars, and activists - show how both dominant and subjugated memories have emerged out of entanglements with such forces as nationalism, imperialism, colonialism, racism, and sexism....
