This publication is really gripping and exciting. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the book. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

It is true that the subject of county jails is referred to incidentally in reports on prison discipline and in numerous papers and addresses, but these 170 pages are all that I can find dealing directly with the subject. Blackmar, 1901; Mr. Alexander Johnson, 1906; and Mr. W. Almont Gates, 1909 - all of which have permanent value. Dr. Wines pursued this subject from 1863 until 1912. Almost his last utterance was his splendid appeal, at the Boston Conference of Social Work, for the abolition of the jail system. But these notable efforts, as I have indicated, have represented only a little fragment of the great mass of discussion in this Association. The United States Census Bureau has treated this subject with the same scrupulous economy which has prevailed in this Association. Surely the American people ought to be interested in the question of how many prisoners awaiting trial, witnesses, insane people, and young children were confined in the jails of this country, but that information is entirely lacking. In 1906 a...
