The facts were, that notice had been given by the valuer acting under the Barking Common Allotment Act of intention to stop up a pathway and bridleway across Claybury-park, and the justices had refused to hear an appeal against it under the above-recited Act. The appeal had been lodged with the clerk of the peace, and came on for hearing on the 29th June last. The counsel for the app. was called upon by the other side to prove the service of the notice and grounds of appeal, which was done by putting in the two notices, dated respectively March 24 and June 18. It was then further insisted that the counsel for the app. were bound to prove that the notice of appeal was served within four months of the Sunday on which the notice had been affixed by the valuer on the church door, and that therefore he must prove the date of the last-mentioned notice. To this it was objected that it was sufficient if proof were given of service of...
