Baldwin was born in Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1872. He lived on a farm until twelve years of age, when upon the removal of his parents to the city, he was sent to the public schools. The excellent education received there was supplemented by a thorough course of study at a first-class business college. Mr. Baldwin s musical education was secured at two conservatories from which institutions he graduated. He was also a pupil of two great masters. His love for music began at an extremely early age and as he grew older the interest was deepened. He determined to learn all that was possible of the art with which he was so enraptured and worked hard and faithfully to attain that end. Mr. Baidwin has been unusually successful as a composer and the merit of his compositions...
