

Book of Twilight (Hardback)

---

By Pablo Neruda

Copper Canyon Press, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The greatest poet of the 20th century in any language. --Gabriel Garcia Marquez His enormous scope was due to the fact that he dared take on the risks of impurity, imperfection, and, yes, banality. He had to do it, in order to name a world. Our world. --New York Times Neruda lived a life of passionate engagement and his work was ambitious in every sense. --Los Angeles Times When Nobel Laureate Pablo Neruda was a teenager, he pawned a family heirloom to fund the publication of his first book, Book of Twilight, which--until now--has never been published in its entirety in the United States. Presenting the highly romantic style refined and empowered in his later books, Neruda's debut introduces a bold poet unafraid to take risks, push boundaries, and write towards an unapologetic romanticism. Everything we know about Neruda--all his gestures, hyperbole, and effusiveness--appears vividly and for the first time in these poems. William O Daly's superb English translations are presented with the original Spanish on face. From Prayer : In this hour in which the lilacs calmly shake their leaves to cast off the...
